

Will Webster is an artist whose practice reflects upon structures of knowledge and their spatial expression.

This work is informed by a period of 10 years working as a commercial and editorial photographer of spaces and locations. This experience that seeded inquiry into the human appetite for 2,3 and 4 dimensional representations, the role of fetish in the concept of space and a critique of discourse around the projective power of architecture.

Please contact me here - will@willwebster.com

----- CV -----

Education:

1992-95 - BSc Psychology, University of Exeter.
2014-16 - MA Photography, Central St. Martins, London.

Exhibitions:

2015, Remember Nature, 1 Granary Square, London.
2015, I can explain, The Russia House, London.
2015, Aestivation, Bayam Shaw School of Art, London.
2015, You're the reason our kids are Ugly, The Laundry, London.
2014, Big Space, 1 Granary Square, London.

Photographs held in several private collections in the UK, USA and Russia.